

Weather Rock Barn comes alive on the Weekend of Dancing in the Country
September 21 and 22, 2013

Beginning the afternoon at 1:00 Saturday in Weather Rock Barn there will be International Folk Dancing with Cecelia Notess and Susan Hinkins organizing the dance list to include request folk dances. IFD will continue with dancing moving to the Nature Center Annex (wood floor) during the evening.

Contra Dancing at 7:00 p.m. following the Pot Luck Supper will feature live music by BEBE LEBOUF with Steve and Sally and Friends, Rab Cummings will be calling dances.

Pot Luck Supper at 5:30 p.m. Please bring a dish to share. Weather can be changeable out here in September - bring appropriate clothing. For protecting the dance floors please wear soft soled shoes. For everyone's benefit, please leave dogs at home, unless you have contacted me for arrangements for your pooch.

Overnight camping, RVs or tents, or sleeping bag space in the house (or barn) for Saturday night. Sunday morning, everyone join together for Breakfast in Hallie's house with early riser coffee at 7:30 a.m. International dances continue in the Barn on Sunday morning.

Information for newcomers to Weather Rock Barn & to find the unique setting:

Location is 678 Flathead Creek Rd. (aka Highway 86) between mile markers 30 &31, exactly at the Park Co./Gallatin Co. line turn north onto a short gravel road which goes down a hill to the homestead. Located near but west of Wilsall, MT toward the Bridger mountains.

Contact: Hallie Rugheimer ph. 406 578-2353 hallierugh@gmail.com